

The Philip M. Epstein Award for Excellence in Family Law

In 2024, the Philip M. Epstein Award for Excellence in Family Law was established by his family in his memory and honour. The Award is open for nominations every two years for a family law lawyer in Canada who has made significant contributions to any of the following during their legal career:

- (a) The advancement of family law in their jurisdiction and/or across Canada;
- (b) Family law education for the bar and bench in their jurisdiction and/or across Canada;
- (c) Improvements to the access to justice through pro bono and public service, including public interest litigation, in relation to family law-related matters;
- (d) Mentoring of and encouraging professional development of family lawyers and/or law students;
- (e) Fostering, by example and otherwise, civility and collegiality within the practice of family law and the family law bar;
- (f) Education of the public, law students, lawyers, and the judiciary about family law;
- (g) Excellence and distinction in family law litigation and/or dispute resolution in family law; and
- (h) Initiation and pursuit of law reform related to the field of family law.

The Award:

$10,000 non-taxable cash prize.

Eligibility:

Candidates must be members in good standing of a Provincial law society and be primarily engaged in the practice of family law or dispute resolution in family law.

Nomination Process:

1. The deadline for nominations for the 2026 Award is Friday, May 1 at 4:00p.m. EST.

2. Please submit nomination packages to the attention of the Managing Partner at Epstein Cole LLP, Roslyn Tsao, by email only to rtsao@epsteincollection.com. Acknowledgement of receipt will be provided.
3. Complete nomination packages must include:
 - (a) A Letter of Nomination by a third party with reference to the above-noted criteria;
 - (b) The nominee's curriculum vitae;
 - (c) A letter from the nominee of no more than two (2) pages; and
 - (d) A maximum of five (5) additional letters in support of the nominee with reference to the above-noted criteria.
4. The Selection Committee will be comprised of five (5) individuals:
 - (a) A current member of the National Family Law Program Committee;
 - (b) The Managing Partner or most senior partner (by year of call) at the law firm of Epstein Cole LLP;
 - (c) Aaron Franks or another representative of Philip Epstein's family; and
 - (d) Two other members selected by the other Committee members, one of whom may be a partner at Epstein Cole LLP.
5. No lawyer at Epstein Cole LLP at the time of award is eligible. The Selection Committee reserves the discretion to decline to name a recipient in a particular year.

The 2026 Award will be presented at the 2026 National Family Law Program in Kelowna
